Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

The Gospels over the next three Sundays invite us to take a deeper dive into what it means to truly be a follower of Jesus, the Christ!

In our Gospel for 9/29 we hear the story of Lazarus, the beggar, and the Rich Man, who dressed well, and dined abundantly... We are told that Lazarus would have settled for even the scraps that fell from the Rich Man's table... but, that the man was unable to "see" Lazarus and his hunger. We are told that "even the dogs" saw Lazarus' sores and licked them to comfort him! Discipleship requires that we struggle to see and respond in some helpful way. It calls us to charitable action regardless of our fears, prejudices, and tendencies towards blindness. To follow Jesus means to break open... and to pour out... our lives in love

In our Gospel for 10/6 we hear the Apostles asking Jesus to "increase our faith." Jesus points them to the examples of a mustard seed, and to a servant who simply does their job without complaining. In the first example... although the mustard seed is small.. it has the power to grow large, and to be impactful! We are reminded.. not, to let our "smallness" bury what God can do! In the example of the servant.. we are reminded of the power that gracious service has on people. Blessed are the Meek, or the Gentle... for their meekness, and kindness.... is what changes situations. May our actions be informed by such love, and our world transformed through these encounters.

In our Gospel for 10/13 we hear the story of ten lepers who were restored to wholeness, and how only One, a Samaritan, returns to say Thank You, and to give Glory to God! Discipleship reminds us that we need God's lead in our lives if we are to flourish! Healing is so much more than a physical lifting of our burdens... it's a call to follow a healthier, and a truer path - that leads to freedom. This God given freedom is not only for ourselves, but for all in need of a loving touch.....to invite them to rise...and to walk..... with purpose and dignity. The leper's return is more than simply a thank you for clean skin.... but is a statement of faith, and thanksgiving...for God's loving action in the world.. that transforms.. and sets free!

May we allow God's Blessings to deeply do their work in us... that we may be of good and proper use to others! Amen!

GOOD NEWS FROM NEWMAN'S TIMOTHY PARKMAN MEMORIAL LIBRARY

Our library is in the process of being DIGITIZED, via the Library of Congress catalogue system (ISBN). This makes our extensive collection easily accessible online.

Now in the second year of the process, we first culled through the large collection, which dated from the origins of the library in the 1950s. The purpose was to make the collection timely for today's readers .

You might be surprised at the variety of books available for the growth and development of our faith community: both Old and New Testament, spirituality, saints stories and contributions; morality, Fathers and Mothers of our church from its origins, the influential religious orders such as Dominicans, Benedictines, Franciscans, Jesuits; the myriads of official letters written by our Popes on social justice, doctrine, the role of laity and more. Find out how and why our Church continues to respond to the needs and aspirations of people worldwide.

We are grateful to the team who have been working long hours: Margaret Lordon, Liz Mathers, Sister Jeanne Carrigan, Ana Kelley, and Denise Durazo. Special thanks to Kelly Kottmer, our Librarian and Grad Coordinator, for her guidance and expertise in making the library project a reality!

October reflection on our theme for this year: "Blessed" taken from Matthew's Gospel account of the Beatitudes

Blessed are the Poor in Spirit for Theirs is the Kingdom of God

What did Jesus mean by this first beatitude in his Sermon on the Mount? Perhaps, to be "poor in spirit" is an attitude and way of being that allows the emptiness necessary to receive God's spirit.... to make space in our minds, our hearts, our egos to receive, nurture, grow in holiness....to not promote ourselves....to cultivate hearts that can truly recognize, embrace, align with the lowly and marginalized....to not demand-from but offer-to others. The "poor in spirit" know they are nothing without God and choose to remain empty, open, ready to receive God's Spirit and act out of it. And the payback? The Kingdom!

CANONIZATION OF JOHN HENRY CARDINAL NEWMAN

October 13th in Rome

We will be celebrating next weekend along with other Newman Centers across the country

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Today's readings show us that living a stewardship way of life — a life focused on serving God and His Kingdom — is not easy. The time, talents, and treasure entrusted to us are all from God.

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts
Psalm 95.

How do I make stewardship a way of life and take responsibility for serving Christ to make His Kingdom a reality?
