Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

To be “fishers” of men and women... when I really think about it.... is not an easy venture. People, as well as fish, can be very finicky and temperamental creatures....

We need to be attracted by different things, and a ‘bait’ that is worthy of our time and attention. For some it’s about how it tastes.. for others it’s about how it looks, where the line is cast, or where we are in life at that moment. My point is that there are many different things that attract our attention to being caught and ‘reeled in’ to God’s Grace.

In saying, “I will make you fishers of men” Jesus is saying I will ‘form and send’ you into every situation that needs care, healing, and reconciliation... No one will be left behind, or forgotten.

God sees, hears, and responds to his “beloved”, which we are!

May we continue to allow God’s “Blessings” to “catch us” and to allow the effects of following Christ to ‘transform’ and ourselves and others. Amen!

January reflection on our theme for this year: "Blessed" taken from Matthew's Gospel account of the Beatitudes

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.

In his, "I Have A Dream" speech, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., quoted from the Prophet Amos 5:24, "we are not satisfied, and we will not be satisfied until justice rolls on like a river, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream". Repetitively, Dr. King pointed to what was not right and in a powerful crescendo began his hope of a place where justice and righteousness resound.

What does it mean to hunger and thirst for righteousness? It is to right what is wrong, not by power or violence, but to do as Jesus did; that is, to speak Truth! What in your world hungers and thirsts for righteousness? Truly, blessed are those who constantly hunger and thirst after righteousness, they will be satisfied! -Sr. Angelica

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Today's readings remind us that stewardship is not just a thing we do. Rather, stewardship is at the core of who we are as disciples of Christ.

"Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."
At once they left their nets and followed him. Mt 4:20

Stewardship compels us to say "yes" when the Lord calls and invites us to "Come after me"

Is my "yes" to God's call immediate, without hesitation?

A gift to you from the Dominicans.
