Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

It is hard to believe that we are already in mid-July! It has been a very unusual summer, not to mention last few months. It's hard to say what's normal, and even unclear to name if "normal" even exists.

Jesus, like many other teachers of his time, loved the use of parables. He used them as often as he could, and those who heard them were left spellbound.

Parables offer three movements: orientation to something that we think we know... only to disorientate us, then to re-orientate us again - in what is true.

In the Parable of Wheat and the Weeds - 7/19/20 - from the 16th Sunday.. we are invited to have a different response towards the wheat and weeds growing together. Instead of separating them we are called to allow them grow together and for God to do the separating later, if needed. God's grace and mercy will act during the growth of wheat and weeds.

In the Buried Treasure and a Pearl of Great Price - 7/26/20 from the 17th Sunday - we are pointed towards the consideration of the Kingdom of God, being a treasure, or a pearl of great price, which we are to value 'so much' that we would be willing to do 'anything' to attain it. If we do this, the Kingdom can act upon our lives, and make a significant difference.

In the Feeding of the Great Crowd 8/2/20 - from the 18th Sunday - we see Jesus caring for the physical needs of a massive crowd by feeding them spiritually, and then serving them a meal that allows not only everyone to be fed, but also have an abundance leftover. It seems that real generosity produces deep miracles.

In Jesus walking on the water, and Peter joining him for a moment - 8/9/20 - from the 19th Sunday - We are invited to see how deep is our faith. Is our faith only solid when we are in control? What about in those moments where we have no control? Can we hold on to God's promise in Christ, to help us to navigate moments of uncertainty, and to walk on the waters of life with Jesus?

In our last example - Jesus, Canaanite woman, and her daughter - 8/16/20 - from the 20th Sunday - Jesus shows us that persistence pays off even in situations that appear impossible - Even in historical and racial tensions that appear to only close down dialogue. In our final Gospel - the Canaanite woman persists in the truth that Christ's message is intended for all.... And, this produces not only 'healing' for the woman's daughter, but 'confidence and healing' for the woman herself.

As The Pastoral Staff steps away for a little renewal before the "opening" of another academic year of ministry at Newman, in a time of uncertainty, pandemic, social distancing, virtual ministry-classes, and the great need for much flexibility and faith.... We do so confident that whatever is before us as a Newman community, that we will be supported by the Grace of God that transforms and leads.... with the Spirit of truth and the Love of God! Amen!

SUMMER BREAK

We will be closed Monday to Friday between July 20th and August 7th to give staff time to rest and renew. We will still livestream our Masses on Sundays at 11AM via YouTube & Facebook.

NEWMAN SUSTAINING BOARD MEMBERSHIP

The Newman Sustaining Board is accepting new members for the next school year. The board consists of about 90 women who sustain and support the Newman Center. Their main focus is the students: scholarships, retreats, improvements to the center to make it more inviting (new tile flooring, upstairs bathrooms, and lobby furniture are the most recent). We also serve home-cooked meals to the students about five times a school year. New Provisionals begin meeting in August with a luncheon planned for them by the chairs of the membership committee. The board has many social activities for members to enjoy. If interested please contact Viv Forgacs: jvmac85750@msn.com or call: 520-349-2900 or Dee Sommer : deesommer@yahoo.com 520-603-5989.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

In today's Gospel, Jesus provides several parables about the Kingdom of God. Listen, pause and reflect on these words, and their challenge for greater faithfulness.

“And you taught your people, by these deeds, that those who are just must be kind; and you gave your children good ground for hope that you would permit repentance for their sins.” Wis. 12:19

How do I help to build the Kingdom of God? How do I embrace justice, kindness and hope in my life?

UNEXPECTED BILL ALERT & THANK YOU

The 28 year old A/C unit at the convent went down the first week of July and we had to replace it. These types of things happen unexpectedly but thankfully we were able to get the sisters some relief from the heat. Thank you for your financial support of Newman - we are deeply grateful

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR RCIA ELECT

Their RCIA journey continues due to the quarantine. We look forward to the day we can gather in person and joyfully welcome them as fully-initiated members of the Church and our Newman Community.
