Fr. John Paul's Spiritual Brew

Doing Justice is at the very heart of the biblical story. From the first words spoken in the Book of Genesis "Let there be Light" and there was! God is setting a tone for the upward movement of creation! 'Don't stay in the dark! Let my light embrace you, and my spirit fill you.'

A spirit that is echoed in the Gospel of Matthew which we hear today when Jesus says "Blessed are the poor, mournful, meek, those hungry for righteousness, those who are merciful, clean of heart, those who seek peace, and those persecuted and insulted for the sake of truth and right, or because of me". They and we are to "rejoice and are glad because in heaven the reward will be great."

Friends of God can "rejoice and be glad" because they are fed by a greater why... a deeper truth.... and a pathway directed towards ultimate fulfillment.

In these days of so many voices it is easy to get swept away, and not see 'all' the life-rafts which God sends that allow us to float and to find sobriety. It is in these moments that the witness of great men and women down through the ages help us to find our breath and to continue.

This Sunday we remember two such people Fr. Albert Felice-Pace, OP and Sr. Diane Bridenbecker OP, who are celebrating 60 years of faithful friendship with God and the many whom they have served including this Newman Center. May they be forever "blessed" and know the respect and care of many who have benefited from their ministry.

May our theme of "Doing Justice" illumine each day of November, beginning with The Feast of All Saints. May we step into loving and active stewardship of all of God's creation. And, May the Holy Souls whom we remember this month.. encourage us by their prayers, and through God's mercy.. Rest in Peace. Amen!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Today we celebrate All Saints. To be called to discipleship is to be called to holiness, in other words, sainthood.

"Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is." 1 Jn. 3:3

Does my faith give me the certain hope that one day I will join the saints in heaven and live in never-ending joy?
